

Access to Higher Education – Art and Design - A019

Access to Higher Education courses are designed to prepare you for higher education (HE). They address the particular needs of adults, 19 and over, who do not have the level of qualification necessary to apply to study at degree level.

In addition to lesson time, you will be expected to complete at least 16 hours of independent study per week.

COURSE DETAILS

The course is designed for those students wishing to pursue a career within Art and Design. The art and design pathway is structured to provide you with the opportunity to produce a portfolio of your own work that will enable you to progress onto higher level courses.

The course is made up of units of learning and examples include the following: Drawing for Art and Design Figure Studies Graphic Skills Development Fine Arts Skills Development Relief Printmaking

Credits are awarded for the Access course modules and in total 60 credits are gained, 45 of which are graded.
