

NVQ Professional Cookery Advanced Diploma - H081

The level 3 Advanced Diploma is the qualification which will refine and develop your culinary skills to those associated with the standards expected of a professional Chef.

You will need to have successfully completed a level 2 qualification in food preparation and cooking such as NVQ level 2 in Food Preparation and Cooking or VRQ level 2 Diploma in Professional Cookery prior to enrolling on this course.

COURSE DETAILS

You will build an E-portfolio of evidence to prove your competence across a range of units. This course is designed to enhance your culinary skills, so you can expect to be taught by professional chef/lecturers, preparing, cooking and finishing complex dishes to the highest possible standard.

As part of your study programme you will develop new techniques in butchery and other larder preparations as well as developing new skills in the art of fine cookery and sauce work. Patisserie also plays an important role in this qualification and you will gain dexterity in producing a range of pastries and cakes.

Your study programme will also provide you with a realistic work environment that mirrors work undertaken in a professional kitchen, and we will also support you in developing skills in English and Maths as well as building your employability skills with a two week period of work experience in a quality local Hospitality and Catering outlet.

Units covered as part of this qualification include the preparation and cooking of complex dishes using fish, vegetables, meat and poultry and you will also develop skills in the production of hot sauces, dressings and cold sauces and complex cakes, sponges, biscuits and scones.
